The Doctrine of Blood

At the heart of the Sanguine Order lies a fundamental belief in the power of blood. The Sanguines believe that blood is the life-force of all creatures and holds the key to unlocking their true potential.

They practice various rituals and ceremonies involving blood, sacrificing both animals and humans to appease their ancient deities and gain favor with the supernatural realm.

The Sanguines believe that by consuming the blood of their victims, they absorb their power and life essence. This ritualistic practice, known as hematophagy, is considered a sacrament within the Order.

Hierarchy and Structure

The Sanguine Order is a highly secretive and hierarchical organization. At the apex of the hierarchy sits the Bloodmaster, who is said to possess immense mystical knowledge and power.

Below the Bloodmaster are the Guardians, who enforce the laws of the Order and carry out its directives. These loyal followers are often trained in martial arts, necromancy, and other arcane disciplines.

The initiates, known as Sanguinites, are those who have recently joined the Order and are undergoing a rigorous training program to prove their worthiness.

The Sanguine Sanctum

The Sanguines have numerous secret sanctuaries known as Sanguine Sanctums scattered throughout the world. These hidden lairs serve as meeting places, ritual chambers, and repositories of forbidden knowledge.

The Sanctums are often concealed within remote forests, abandoned ruins, or underground catacombs. They are adorned with ancient symbols, flickering candles, and the sickly-sweet scent of incense.

Within the Sanguine Sanctums, the Order conducts its rituals, plots its schemes, and initiates new members into the mysteries of the blood.

Blood Infernal: The Rite of Ascension

The Rite of Ascension is a dangerous and arduous process that requires years of preparation and sacrifice. It involves consuming the blood of multiple victims, performing complex rituals, and undergoing a series of near-death experiences.

Only a select few Sanguines are able to successfully complete the Rite of Ascension. Those who do become known as Blood Infernals and are granted the respect and awe of their fellow members.
