After lunch, head to the Burj Khalifa, the tallest building in the world. Take the elevator to the observation deck for stunning views of the city. Tickets start at AED 125 (around $34).

In the evening, take a walk along the Dubai Marina and enjoy dinner at one of the many restaurants with outdoor seating. You can also take a boat tour of the marina for around AED 100 (around $27).

Day 2

On your second day in Dubai, visit the Jumeirah Mosque, one of the most beautiful mosques in the world. Non-Muslims are welcome to visit the mosque during guided tours, which are held several times a day. Admission is free.

After lunch, head to the Dubai Museum to learn about the history and culture of Dubai. Admission is AED 3 (around $0.80).

In the evening, take a traditional abra boat across the Dubai Creek to Deira, the historic district of Dubai. Here you can 逛逛 the souks (markets) and buy souvenirs. You can also take a ride on the Dubai Ferry for around AED 2 (around $0.50).

Day 3

On your third and final day in Dubai, visit the Palm Jumeirah, an artificial island in the shape of a palm tree. Here you can relax on the beach, swim in the sea, or visit the Atlantis, The Palm hotel. Admission to the beach is free.

After lunch, head to the Dubai Miracle Garden, a botanical garden with over 45 million flowers. Admission is AED 55 (around $15).

In the evening, take a sunset cruise of the Dubai Marina. You can book a cruise for around AED 150 (around $40).

Tips for Saving Money in Dubai

* Travel during the off-season (April-September). * Book your flights and accommodations in advance. * Take advantage of free activities, such as visiting the Dubai Mall and the Jumeirah Mosque. * Eat at local restaurants instead of tourist traps. * Use public transportation instead of taxis. * Take advantage of discounts and coupons.

With a little planning, you can easily enjoy a budget-friendly trip to Dubai. So what are you waiting for? Start planning your trip today!
