The Technical St. Louis Cyclones are a professional hockey team based in St. Louis, Missouri. They are members of the Central Hockey League (CHL) and play their home games at the Family Arena. The Cyclones were founded in 1992 and have won two CHL championships, in 2001 and 2009.

The Cyclones are a popular team in St. Louis and have a strong fan base. They are known for their exciting style of play and their commitment to the community. The Cyclones are also a great value for families, with tickets starting at just $10.

History

The Technical St. Louis Cyclones were founded in 1992 as an expansion team in the CHL. The team's first season was a success, as they finished with a record of 40-26-4 and made it to the playoffs. The Cyclones continued to be a competitive team in the CHL, and they won their first championship in 2001.

The Cyclones won their second championship in 2009, and they have been a consistent playoff contender ever since. The team has a strong tradition of success, and they are one of the most popular teams in the CHL.

Roster

The Cyclones have a roster of talented players, including forwards, defensemen, and goaltenders. The team is led by head coach Brad Shaw, who has been with the Cyclones since 2011. Shaw is a former NHL player and coach, and he has a wealth of experience in the game of hockey.

Some of the Cyclones' most notable players include:

- Forward Cody Martin is the Cyclones' leading scorer and has been named to the CHL All-Star team multiple times.
- Defenseman Brent Regner is a veteran leader and has been with the Cyclones since 2007.
- Goaltender Joel Rumpel is a rising star and has been named the CHL's Goaltender of the Year twice.

The Cyclones have a well-balanced roster with a good mix of experience and youth. The team is poised to make a run at the CHL championship in the 2022-23 season.

Schedule

The Cyclones' regular season schedule runs from October to April. The team plays a total of 68 games, including 34 home games and 34 away games. The Cyclones' home games are played at the Family Arena in St. Louis, Missouri.

The Cyclones' schedule can be found on the team's website.

Tickets

Tickets to Cyclones games can be purchased online, by phone, or at the Family Arena box office. Tickets start at just $10, and there are a variety of discounts available, including discounts for families, seniors, and military members.

The Cyclones offer a great value for families. Tickets are affordable, and the team has a family-friendly atmosphere. The Cyclones also offer a variety of family-friendly events throughout the season, including skate with the team, meet-and-greets, and birthday parties.

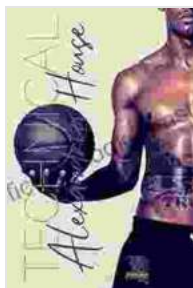

Community Involvement

The Cyclones are committed to giving back to the St. Louis community. The team has a variety of programs and events that benefit local charities and organizations. The Cyclones also work with local schools to promote hockey and physical fitness.

Here are some of the Cyclones' community involvement programs:

- Cyclones in the Classroom: This program brings Cyclones players and staff into local schools to teach students about hockey and the importance of education.

- Cyclones Read: This program encourages children to read by providing them with free books and hosting reading events at local libraries.
- Cyclones Skate with the Kids: This program provides free skating lessons to underprivileged children.
