I wrote The Kid Guide to Acadia National Park because I wanted to share my love of the park with other families. I hope that this book will inspire kids to explore the park's natural wonders and to develop a lifelong love of nature.

I have spent many years exploring Acadia National Park with my own kids. We have hiked to the summit of Cadillac Mountain, kayaked along the coast, and camped under the stars. We have also seen whales, seals, and bald eagles.

Acadia National Park is a truly special place. It is a place where kids can learn about the natural world and where families can create memories that will last a lifetime.

I hope that you and your family will enjoy The Kid Guide to Acadia National Park.
