Chapter 1: Fiordland's Majestic Grandeur in "Possession"

The opening chapter of the trilogy, "Possession," takes us deep into the breathtaking wilderness of Fiordland, a region renowned for its towering mountains, pristine fjords, and cascading waterfalls. Here, we meet Janet figure who becomes entangled in a web of deceit and intrigue. As the boundaries between reality and illusion blur, George's past and present collide, leading him on a perilous journey of self-discovery.
